THE SALE OF CABETSHIPS.

The Committee on Millary Affairs somewhat startled the House yesterday afterneon, by submitting its first report in relation to the safe of cadetables, and the blow fell first upon Mr. H. F. Whittemore, a member from South Carolina. The cridenes was plate, positive, and pointed, that Mr. Logan and other members of the Military Com-mittee could not see the necessity of delay, and wanted action at once, in order that the House might speedily purge itself of the resence of one who had brought a stigma ipen the whole body of the Representatives. The Military Committee certainly deserves all praise for the promptness with which it has acted in this matter; and the rapidity with which it reported its judgment to the Mr. Whitiemore is a Republican, and had there been a ressonable excuse for his con-duct he would have been saved the humiliaduct be would have been saved the humilia-tion and disprace of an expulsion, for the committee is composed of such Republicans as Legan, Cobb. Negley, Fackard, Stough-ton, Wircher and Asper. Mr. Hoge, of South Carolina, also a Republican, is a member of the committee, and he joined the majority in recommending the expulsion of his colleague. It will be seen, therefore his colleague. It will be seen, thursfore, that the committee rose entirely above party and looked only to Justice. That the resolution of expulsion will be unanimously adopted three does not seem to be a doubt, as the delay suggested by Mr. Poland, Mr. Butler and others was only for the purpose of not seeming to be in too great haste.

The report excited the most profound attention on the floor of the House, which had an unusually large attendance, and is
